1. Drawing:

The Figure should be changed to - - Figure 1 - -.

2. Claims 10-14 are objected to because the method steps, for example:

Monitoring scan automatic test pattern... (ATPG) and (BIST) patterns...;

Selecting desired scan chain outputs...;

Combining the die ID scan out signal m memory BIST signals and scan chains signals...;

Generating the monitored IC output signals;

Configuring a burn-in configuration register;

Combining IC Die identification (ID) scan out data...; and Combining memory BIST fail/go-nogo status data..., should have a flow chart or flow diagram showing these method steps or these features should be canceled from the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As per claim 10, lines 3-6, "monitoring scan automatic test pattern generation (ATPG) and memory built-in self-test (BIST patterns...to generate monitored IC output signals" the relationship between the monitoring step and the selecting step is unclear; and.

Line 5, "desired scan chain outputs and memory BIST status outputs" does not have a clear antecedent basis. Appropriate correction is required.

As per claims 11-14, these claims are rejected because they dependent upon the rejected base claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Balachandran et al (US-2003/0149913).

Balachandran et al disclose a method of observing integrated circuit failures during burn-in testing, comprising the steps of:

Monitoring scan automatic test pattern generation and memory built-in self-test patterns. And Selecting desired scan chain outputs and memory BIST outputs to generate monitored IC output signals. (See Fig. 8, paragraphs (0037)-(0040).

The applied reference has a common assignee Texas Instruments Incorporated with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-9 are allowable.

Reason for Allowance

7. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-9 are allowable over the arts of record. This is because the art of record does not disclose or teach the invention as recited in claims 1 and 4, and including:

A burn-in configuration register;

A combinational logic operational in response to IC Die identification (ID) scan data and burn-in configuration register data to generate Die ID scan out signals;

A means for generating memory BIST signals;

A means for generating scan chain signals; and

An exclusive-OR logic operational in response to the Die ID scan out signals, memory BIST signals, and scan chains signals to generate monitored output signals.

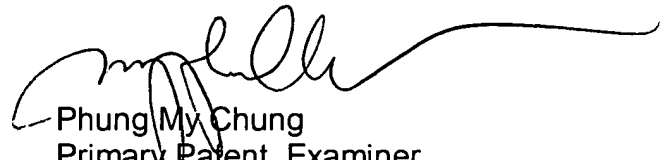

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
